Job Posting: Performing Arts Summer Camp Counsellors

Job Description

Randolph Kids Performing Arts (registered style name: Randolph College for the Performing Arts) is searching for qualified, experienced, engaging, and energetic camp counselors for our 2024 Summer Camps. Counselors must be available to work in-person in our building in downtown Toronto (736 Bathurst Street.)

About Randolph Kids Performing Arts

Randolph Kids offers after-school & weekend recreational classes in dancing, singing, and acting, as well as workshops and summer camps. As a division of Randolph School for the Arts, we are known for our unique Triple Threat musical theatre program. We at Randolph Kids are committed to meeting our students at their level, and teaching them not only the skills to shine in our studios and on-stage, but the tools to navigate their lives outside our doors. Our values are Joy, Excellence, Integrity, Innovation, and Empowerment. At Randolph Kids, we believe in nurturing the artist within each student.

About Randolph Kids Summer Camp

Over the course of 6 weeks, Randolph Kids is offering a variety of camps to children ages 5-15 in a variety of disciplines and programs. We hire Counselors to support Instructors in delivering daily programming, and assist and supervise students throughout the day. Counselors will be assisted by student volunteers, and other support staff.

Requirements

- A vested interest in performing arts education, and the ability to support Instructors in delivering an exciting camp syllabus for the assigned contracted dates.
- Previous instructing experience with children in any formal or informal setting (school, before/after school program, camp).
- Previous camp experience is an asset.
- Ability to work with students of all ages and abilities.
- Ability to motivate and engage students during their classes.
- Able to provide, or willing to obtain, a Vulnerable Sector Screening prior to start date.
- Training in education and/or child development (B.Ed., E.C.E., artists in the community, or equivalent).
- Training or education in performing arts (B.F.A., diploma, or equivalent).

Rate

$89-100/day depending upon experience and qualifications.

How to Apply

Submit a brief cover letter, a performer's resume, and a professional CV.
